PRIERBURG, May 17, 1886.

The pulpits of many of the churches in this city were filled yesterday by ministers of the Methodist General Conference now in session in Richmond. Bishop Granbery preached twice during the day, and Rev. Dr. A. G. Haygood three times. In the afternoon Dr. Haygood preached to a large congregation of colored people at the Union-Street church. Bishop Granbery was for four years pastor of the bery was for four years pastor of the Market-Street church, and his old con-gregation were delighted to welcome and hear him sgain.

Rev. E. C. Dargan, pastor of the Rev. E. C. Dargan, pastor of the First Baptist church, preached yesterday morning on the subject of "The Relation of Music to Religion." He referred to the week of music the people of our city had enjoyed, and held that music and religion should be cultivated, the one with the other, in the Christian's heart.

The Friends' Yearly Meeting commenced at Black Creek, in Southampton county, on Saturday, and probably ton county, on Saturday, and probably concluded to-day. The attendance, as usual, was very large, and many Friends from other States than Virginia were present. The occasion is always one of great interest in the county, where many descendants of Friends live, and attracts many hundreds of people.

Holmes R. Puryear, who is on trial in the Circuit Court of Prince George the Circuit Court of Prince George for the murder of his wife by poison in Dinwiddie county, was placed on the witness-stand Saturday and again to-day, to testify in his own behalf. This is one of the first cases in this section under the new law in which a person charged with a capital offence has been allowed to testify in his own behalf. To-day the Dispatch correspondent was summoned by the prosecution to give testimony in the case relative to the interview with Puryear shortly after his mayor on the Republican ticket, but withdrew his name for the reason, as alleged, of unfairness and dishonesty in the election of delegates by the ward meetings. William B. Mcllwaine, Esq., named for Commonwealth's attorney, is a Democrat. He is a lawyer of prominence and ability, and one of the most popular men in the city. Michael Rahily, recommended for collector of taxes, is a Republican, and was for years chief deputy in the revenue department here. He is an Irishman. Mr. L. O. Badger, for high-constable, is a Democrat, and R. H. Cooley, for gauger, is a colored Republican. These recommendations are of course subject ommendations are of course subject to approval by the mass-meeting of citizens to-morrow night. It is reported to-day that one or two of the persons named on the ticket will decline to be candidates, in which case others will be substituted in their places.

The annual meeting of the Metho dist Sunday-School Union was held yesterday afternoon at Washington-Street church. The attendance was large, and the exercises very interesting. Addresses were delivered by Rev. W. W. Duncan and Rev. J. M. Carlisle, of Wofford College, S. C.

criminal. He not only injures himself but does a wrong to his family. By the use of Brown's Iron Bitters a healthy action is given to the torpid liver, the blood is sent coursing through its various channels, is there relieved of its impurities and it imparts strength and tone to the other organs. This medicine is unlike all other iron preparations known, in that it does not injure or discolor the teeth and will not cause Headache or Constitution. There are many imitations. You will be urged to try them, but remember that Brown's Iron Bitters is the only sure cure, and do not listen to prejudiced advice and get an inferior article which pays the dealer a better profit, but which will utterly fail to benefit you. The genuine has the trademark and crossed red lines on the wrapper. A year or two ago Mr. Anderson Scott, a citizen of Nottoway county, obtained a verdict for $2,400 damages against the Norfolk and Western railroad for injuries received from one of the company's engines. The company appealed from the decision of the Cir-cuit Court, but, it is reported, has with-in the last few days withdrawn the appeal, and compromised the case by payment of $2,200.

COURT ORDERS. CITIZENS BANK VS. SNEAD AND

[Sporting Times.]

There was great rejoicing in town last night over Mr. Doswell's victory in the Willard-Hotel stakes yesterday. Judging by the way some of the Virginia delegation looked to-day on the track, most of them went to the races last night, and the probabilities are that more than one pot of red paint was upset. Major Doswell at last overruled his trainer, and got jockeys instead of colored stable boys to ride for him. Thus he got the honors and the money. To me personally the victory was a source of gratification, as it proved that the unbounded confidence I expressed in the young Eoluses in my letters du-ring the week was not misplaced.

It is very funny, however, to record that the wrong horse won. Major Doswell is not a betting man, and did not declare with which one he would win. Either one would have satisfied him. He told Higgs and Caldwell that which ever one would win he would give him $100. As Eolian, however, was tried so high Major Doswell finally violated his non-betting principles, and put $30 on him to win and $5 for a Little Higgs rode like a demon, probably because he saw that hundred-dollar bill fluttering in the distance. Johnny Caldwell was hotafter the race, and in the weighing-room tackled young Higgs. "You're a fine countryman," said he, "racing your stable companion out. You saw that I had the race, which was enough, as I was the favorite in the betting." Higgs only laughed. Caldwell, however, did not lose anyhing, as Major Doswell was so delighted that he gave each of the boys $100.

Several large shoe-manufacturers at Stonelam, Mass., will shut down for an in-definite period, owing to the strike of 300 cutters several weeks ago. It is stated that fifteen of the nine een factories will proba-bly cease work altogether within the next forty-eight hours.

A TRIAL BY JURY.

A fundamental principle of free government is the right of all men under the law to trial by a jury of their peers, surrounded testimony in the case relative to the interview with Paryaer shortly after his arrest. It is believed that the testimony will be closed to-morrow. Instructions will be asked for and argued, and probably the case will not reach the jury before Wednesday evening or Thursday.

The father of one of the jurors, Mr. Emory, died on Saturday morning and was buried Sunday afternoon. The jury could not be separated, and so the whole number, in charge of two or three officers, to enable the afflicted juror to be present at the funeral, attended in a body.

It may ge stated in this connection that by reason of the great length of this trial many of the witnesses from a distance have been put to serious trouble and inconvenience. Some of the warchouses in this city, and all had to make out the best way they could. Most of the witnesses them were camped for days at one of the warchouses in this city, and all had to make out the best way they could.
